

PANHANDLE COWBOYS GAZETTE APRIL 2012

APRIL MATCH

As you know our April match was cancelled due to the fact that match day occurred on Easter Sunday and the ERML range is closed on Easter Sunday. The match was rescheduled for the 4th Sunday of April but, many of our Panhandle Cowboys, including most Club officers, were going to the Mississippi State Championship match, Showdown at Purgatory '12'. The election of club officers, which is normally held during the April match, was also postponed to the May match.

Panhandle Cowboys Showdown at Purgatory '12' match results are listed at the end of this issue of the GAZETTE.

SABATA

Around the middle of April High Card received an email from Rooster Cogburn about fellow cowboy Sabata. It seems Sabata has had shoulder replacement surgery and is doing well, although, he will be out of action for about a total of 6 months. Of course, we wish him a speedy, and complete, recovery and hope to see him soon.

EIGHT FINGER

Mad Dane advises he has received an email from Eight Finger wherein Eight Finger advises he is still having health issues, but will come to a Panhandle Cowboys match as soon as he is able; maybe not to shoot, but just to say "Howdy". We wish him well, and hope to see him soon.

BILL OF RIGHTS SECOND AMENDMENT

MAY SIDE MATCH

Our May side match will be a derringer side match ramrodded by High Card. Bring your derringer if you have one, or if you "don't got one" borrow one from a cowboy or cowgirl "who do got one". If you feel really adventurous you could borrow Rocky Lane's .44-40 WCF derringer. (Cinch the saddle down tight on that one 'cause it bucks.)

MARCH COWBOY/COWGIRL

Well, our March Cowboy/Cowgirl was a little different last month. Instead of the usual “Who is our cowboy or cowgirl in the photo” we just had a photo showing two cowboys and a cowgirl. The photo was from the movie 100 Rifles, as is the one below, starring Jim Brown, Raquel Welch, and newcomer Burt Reynolds. Yep, it was true; this was one of Burt Reynolds’ early acting ventures. It was also one of the early spaghetti westerns, being of considerably higher quality than many of the later spaghetti westerns.

Blackhawk Kid and ‘Lil Dynamite correctly identified our three movie stars as well as the rifle in question. Jeb Stuart correctly identified our three movie stars, and Apalachee Fugitive correctly identified our three movie stars, and the rifle in question. What was the rifle? It was the M1898 Krag-Jorgenson rifle (shown below) chambered for the .30 US (.30-40 Krag) cartridge.

The Panhandle Cowboys will be represented at the Pensacola gun show June 23-24. If you are able to help man the tables and talk Cowboy Action Shooting™ for a day or two contact Mad Dane at dlangley@gulftel.com and volunteer, and don't forget to wear your CAS™ duds. Bring some shootin' irons for display, too.

APRIL COWBOY

April's cowboy was born Charles John Holt III, February 5, 1918, in Beverly Hills, California. He attended Culver Military Academy in Culver, Indiana, graduating in 1936. By 1938 he had had five minor acting roles. In 1938 he had a major role with Harry Carey, Sr. in The Law West of Tombstone.

In 1939 he appeared as a US Army Lieutenant in the movie that made John Wayne a major movie star; Stagecoach. In 1942 he had a leading role in the movie The Magnificent Ambersons, and in 1943 he starred, as a Nazi, in Hitler's Children. After this movie he joined the US Army Air Force serving as a B-29 bombardier. He was wounded on the last day of World War II.

How about another photo to help identify our cowboy? He is the cowboy on the left in the photo on the right. Huh? And yes, in a few of his movies he did wear his right side pistol in the straight-draw style, and wore his left side pistol in a cross-

SHOWDOWN AT PURGATORY '12' MAIN MATCH RESULTS

Showdown at Purgatory "12" has come to a successful conclusion. There was also a Wild Bunch Match, the results of which follow the main match results. Reports are the Mississippi Peacemakers, again, put on an outstanding match. Buckles were awarded for the top 3 shooters in each category. The scores can be seen at:

<http://www.mississippipeacemakers.com/Scores.html>

Mad Dane and High Card report Posse 7 had 14 Panhandle Cowboys and 1 cowboy from South Florida. (Obviously, all of our cowboys and cowgirls were not on the same posse.) High Card and Mad Dane report the posse quickly became known as the "Train Wreck Posse", as everyone on the posse had something go wrong; such as, procedurals, minor safeties, and just plain crazy things happening. (Sounds like Murphy's Law applied.) But, reportedly, they just laughed it off and had a great weekend.

The Posse 7 Spirit of the Game went to Dixie Chick, who was unable to shoot due to a recent surgery, but worked for the entire match and served as the posse cheer leader.

According to my figures we had thirteen cowboys and cowgirls finish in the top 5 of their respective categories. Congratulations to all of our cowboys and cowgirls. Good shooting!
